

Get Ready for Networking in the Snow at Adaptive Spirit 2024

Vail, Colorado, USA, 04 Apr 2024 - 07 Apr 2024

Pack your skis and get ready to join the unique networking and charity initiative on snow. Comarch is proud to announce the Bronze Sponsorship of this year's edition of Adaptive Spirit. This event will take place from April 4 to April 7, 2024, in Vail, Colorado, United States.

Adaptive Spirit is a non-profit association that promotes business partnerships, education, and knowledge sharing through unconventional and entertaining activities.

Their goals are to bring a positive change to the industry by connecting association members with vendors and resources that enhance the outcome of their business dealings, provide out-of-the-box business networking opportunities in the telecommunications industry, and share best practices. Additionally, donations will be collected during the event for the U.S. National Paralympic Ski and Snowboard Team.

The Comarch team is excited to participate and will be present for networking and discussions about the latest trends and solutions related to the telecommunications industry. We are looking forward to meeting you in Vail, Colorado.

Find out more about Adaptive Spirit on the official event website.

Reach out to Piotr (Peter) Stokłosa, Director of Business Development at Comarch US, via piotr.stoklosa@comarch.com to schedule a meeting and join our team for this event.

